captioned, "Rs. 324 cr. diamonds smuggled in through forged REP licences" which appeared in Hindustan Times dated the 16th June, 2001;

(b) if so, the reaction of Government thereto and whether Government propose to unearth the nexus of interested persons and officials of DGFT; and

(c) if so, the details thereof?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF COMMERCE AND INDUSTRY (SHRI DIGVIJAY SINGH): (a) Yes, Sir. As a result of critical scrutiny of import documents including licences presented for clearances of rough diamonds in February, 2001 and detailed follow up investigations, Mumbai, Customs detected that four importing firms, namely M/s Deepali Exports, M/s Vijaybhav, M/s Pushpak Impex and M/s Vaibhav Exports had been indulging in tampering and forgery of import licences to get away with duty free imports of rough diamonds. Investigations have revealed that these firms have imported rough diamonds valued at Rs. 332 crores on the strength of 53 forged Replenishment Licences during the period January, 1999 to February, 2001. Rough Diamonds worth Rs. 5 crores have been seized and all the four Proprietors of the above said four firms have been arrested under the Customs Act, 1962.

(b) and (c) Yes, Sir. Action against the four accused is underway under the Customs Act, 1962 and allied laws. No DGFT officials have been found involved in this case.
